

22nd MAY 2016

Trinity Sunday

WELCOME

We welcome all visitors and newcomers.

WORSHIP

Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God Almighty, who was and is and is to come.

PRAYER OF PREPARATION

Dear God, help us to show our gratitude as we remember your goodness, patience as we remember our sins and joy as we remember your love; and enable us now to lift up our hearts in humble prayer and fervent praise; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Trinity Sunday - Ballyclug

22nd May 2016

A reading from the Letter of St Paul to the Romans chapter 5 beginning at verse 1

Since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

This is the word of the Lord
THANKS BE TO GOD

A reading from the gospel according to St John chapter 16 beginning at verse 12

Jesus said to his disciples: 'I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.'
