THE RECTOR WRITES

The Rector Writes

Have you ever noticed how much a person's face changes when they smile and laugh - it is a beautiful thing. Sadly today for many it is an increasingly rare thing! A daily event in the routine of this rector is to get lost on the roads around the town and the opportunity to watch people as they drive and walk about their business - there's not many smiles on display - just go and have a look for yourself sometime. A lot of life, for a lot of the time, for a lot of people, ranges from boring routine to worry inducing pressure and you can actually see that on people's faces a lot of the time - where are we to find sources of joy to counter balance the pressures of life? Well you would expect me to say Jesus - a trust in Him and a love for Him that enters our thoughts and reactions everyday. Commenting on 'the secret of being content' Philip-pians 4:12, Matthew Henry writes: - 'Vain hankering after something we have not got, and fickle derelish of present things make us discontent even under favourable circumstances'.

So have you discovered the secret?

We have loved being on the receiving end of so many smiles over the past couple of weeks, keep them coming.

As many head off on holiday over the next few weeks, keep safe and remember to smile lots. Not fake or forced smiles but genuine. Smiles that come from an assurance that we are loved and accepted by God because we love and accept all of His Son Jesus Christ.

Now to make you smile -

What kind of biscuits can fly?
Wee plane (plain) ones!

Go on I know you smiled even if just a little!

AUTUMN FUNDRAISING EVENTS

As reported in last month's magazine, this year, the Auction and Christmas Fair will be held on two separate dates. This should enable potential bidders to have more time to view items before the Auction begins. In addition, buyers at the Christmas Fair will, hopefully, have more time to peruse the wide range of goods for sale by the various stall holders.

PARISH AUCTION - SATURDAY 24 SEPTEMBER 2016

The Auction has been arranged for Saturday, 24 September 2016, commencing at 11.30 am. Potential bidders will have the opportunity to view the items for sale from 9.00 am - 11.30 am.

At the last Auction, around 60 items were auctioned, some of which were donated by local businesses but many were very kindly donated by our own parishioners. Once again, we would appeal to everyone to begin to think about any items that might be donated for the Auction (valued at £25+ and in good condition, please). These may be left with the caretaker in the church hall any weekday from Monday, 12 September to Thursday, 22 September (12 noon - 3.00 pm) or you may simply get in touch with any member of the Fundraising Committee (please see next page) by 21 September.

Robert Stevenson did a magnificent job in keeping order in the proceedings last time around and we are delighted that, once again, Robert has kindly agreed to be our auctioneer.

CHRISTMAS FAIR - SATURDAY 26 NOVEMBER 2016

The Christmas Fair will be held on Saturday, 26 November 2016, commencing at 10 am. At the last Fair in 2014, there was a great variety of stalls, selling a whole range of produce. It would be greatly appreciated if the various church organisations and individuals could begin to think, once again, about how they might contribute to this year's Fair. If you would be willing to organise an event or have a stall at the Fair, could you please let a member of the Fundraising Committee know by 24 October.

All proceeds, both from the Auction and Christmas Fair, will go towards church funds.

Fundraising Committee members: Debbie Chestnutt, Lynda Bell, Sandra Duke, Ronnie Fleming, Jackie Greer, Joan Holden, Stephanie Johnston, Trevor Montgomery and Alan Ross.

There's an opportunity to stay over at Dromantine on the Friday night and make the most of the venue with our Friday Extra Programme.

The conference will mark the start of a new year of mission, as we invite God to spark us into life and to reignite our passion for Him and for His work.

GIFTS AND ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Over the past few weeks since arriving as rector of the parish, we have been richly blessed by a number of most generous gifts and donations. Not only does this show a deep love for this parish, but also a deep love of the Lord. It is right in my opinion to acknowledge with thanksgiving such gifts and in this and future magazines we will seek to do so. Obviously there is a danger in establishing this new system that we leave someone out - not at all our intention. So please if you have given such a gift say since the start of June this year will you please ensure through Lorraine in the church office that we have full details. All gifts great and small will be acknowledged in this way in future eg gifts in memory of loved ones, to mark special dates and anniversaries, gifts to bless particular ministries within the parish. Of course in all cases requests for anonymity will be strictly respected.

Thank you from a grateful rector.

ST PATRICK'S CHURCH ORGANIST

The Select Vestry of St Patrick's wishes to formalise arrangements both in relation to the position of Director of Music and also for providing cover for playing the organ at church.

These roles will be on a part time/flexible basis and will entail the playing of hymns/anthems and developing our well established musical tradition.

If you wish to register an expression of interest please send details of your qualifications and experience to the honorary secretary Alastair Marrs by letter - 32 Granville Drive, Ballymena, BT43 7AF, or email to a.1.marrs@btinternet.com by 31st July 2016.

CHURCH LADS' AND CHURCH GIRLS' BRIGADE

Everyone within the Brigade was very upset to learn about the tragic accidental death of Darren Rodgers, one of our leaders. Darren Joined the C.L.B. when he was about five years old and came right through all the sections and very proudly represented Ballymena and Ulster at 5-a-side football in England. Darren was always reliable and enthusiastic when it came to his leadership skills and really looked forward to Display nights every year. He will be remembered by everyone in St Patrick's with his cheeky smile and having time to stop and have a chat. Our thoughts and prayers are with Paul and Jacqueline and the wider family circle at this very sad time.

Alan Ross (Captain)

CHOIR NOTES

The choir were delighted to be able to take part in the Institution of Rev. Mark McConnell on Wednesday 1 June 2016. It was great to see the church so well filled to welcome and support the McConnell family.

On Sunday 5 June the congregations from St Patrick's Ballyclug and St Columba's were able to join the congregation at St Patrick's Ballymena for a joint service; again it was great to see the church so well attended. The evening service that Sunday was Choral Evensong and it was an honour to have our own rector as cantor. 'A little bird' has told us that Rev. McConnell's son, Matthew, is a very talented singer - so perhaps Matthew might be in a position to come along and sing with the choir at some stage!

On Thursday 16 June the choir had an evening at Tullyglass Hotel. The food was amazing (and the company wasn't too bad either). I shouldn't really mention 'the late' Billy Harte but it was good to see him when he finally arrived at Tullyglass Hotel - I will refrain from any mention of where he actually went! We had a quiz on the night and even though Adrian's team had a little bit of help - they didn't win! The winners on the night were Finn's team - well done to Finn's Fancies.

The winner of the quiz, which Sharon Doak had organised, was Andy Kennedy.

It has been a busy year for the choir so during the months of July and August there will be no choir singing at the evening service.

Before we know it September will be upon us and a new session will have begun. If you would like to join the choir practices will begin on Thursday 25 August at 8 pm in the Robing Room and we will be delighted to see you.

We trust that you will all have a wonderful break over the summer months.

Ruth Dixon (Secretary)

STILL ACTIVE CLUB

We have reached the end of another year in the life of our club. At our monthly meetings we usually have visiting speakers. In September two members of the new Mid and East Antrim Council came along, and advised everyone on how to keep warm and safe in their homes and what the Council could provide to help with this. In October Linda Quail did armchair aerobics and some dancing with us. Our speakers in November were Margaret McKay and Vi Attridge who put on a wonderful display of their craft work, and talked about the various items. In February Helen Muirhead talked of her work with the deaf in Kenya and everybody marvelled at what she had achieved there. Our speaker in April was David Archibald who showed us how to plant a hanging basket and a container, and answered questions about gardening.

The December meeting took the form of Christmas Dinner and entertainment led by Sandra Montgomery, who accompanied Julie Kernohan in several songs, played for carol singing and did some recitations. There were also three outings. In January there was our usual outing to the Riverside Theatre to see a show which this year was 'Legally Blonde' and for tea afterwards in the Lodge Hotel. In March a bus load went to Lack to join with the Revd Alan Irwin's 'Young at Heart' group. There was a warm welcome and large quantities of stew and trifle, followed by the fun of a frog race. Finally in May there was the end of year outing to Newcastle and round the coast to Newry and tea at Banbridge Parish Church.

The club continues to grow, although some members have suffered from illness this year. Hopefully they will be well enough to join us in September which will be our 25th Anniversary. Thanks to anybody who helped this year, especially our Committee members - Adelaide, Eva, Irene, Jean, Vera and Alex who help in so many ways, and organise the afternoon tea each month. A safe and happy summer holiday to everyone. See you in September.

Isabel Halliday

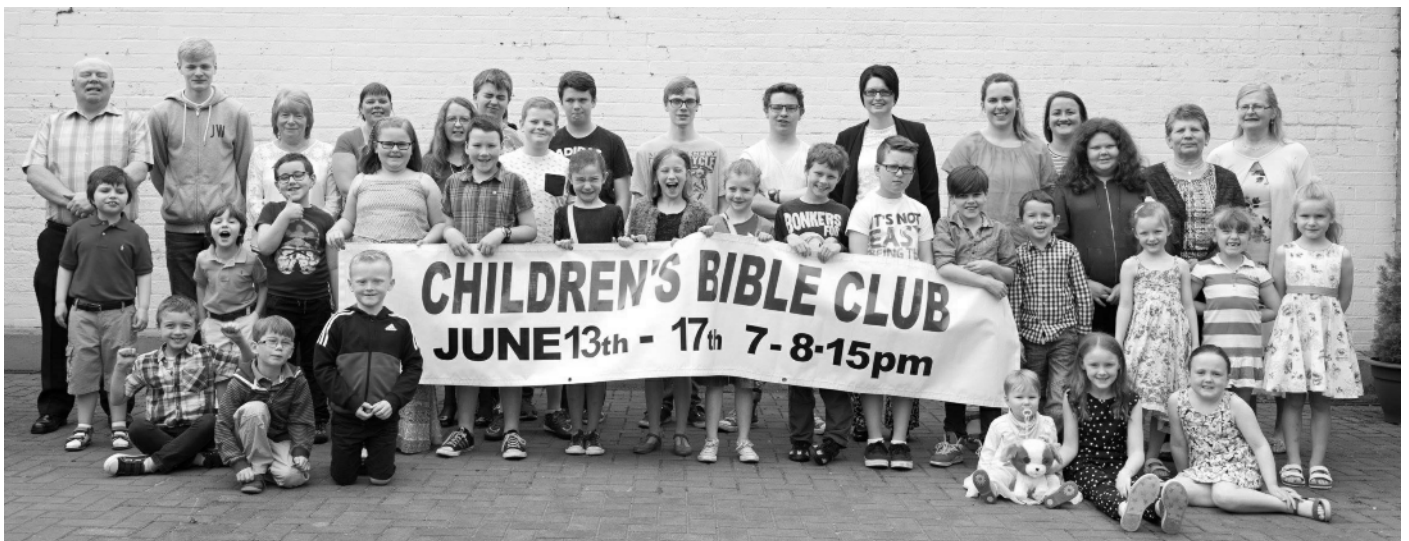

*'I believe your exact words were
"50p a window Lady" over the phone'*

We were shocked and saddened to hear of the tragic death of Darren Rodgers. Darren grew up in the church and was very much involved in Sunday School, C.L.B., Youth Club, Summer Madness and was confirmed in the church. We have fond memories of Darren and all the craic we had especially during our times at Summer Madness.

Darren was a friend to many and always had a smile on his face. We will miss him a lot. We give thanks for his life and all that he gave to the church especially through the C.L.B. We especially remember Paul and Jacqueline his mum and dad, Yvonne and Owen his aunt and uncle who helped with Youth Club and Margaret his aunt who is one of our Sunday School teachers. We pray for the whole family circle, may God bless them all in the days and months that lie ahead.

Our Children's Week 'Guardians of Ancora' was a great success. The children enjoyed coming each night to find out what the missing treasure was and listen to the stories of the saga. Each night we spread the light with our firebugs passing on the good news of Jesus to our friends. We hope the stories remain with the children and the love of God impacts on their daily lives especially their heart, mind and soul.

On Saturday 18th June we had our family Fun Night - it was great to see so many people and the weather stayed dry. Special thanks to Godmox, Brian's Bouncy Castles, Darren Reynolds Photo Booth, William Allen for the meat and Bobby Cotter for the bread rolls. Also thanks to Liz and Les Hughes for the BBQ. Thanks to all who helped with face painting, glitter tattoos, balloon modelling, tea and coffee, ice cream sundaes and supervising the bouncy castle.

On Sunday 19th June we had our finale at the Children's Day Service where the children sang songs and received their prizes. A cheque was presented for £425 to the CMS project 'The Meeting Place' which will help with projects in Uganda.

The following awards were presented:

Minnie McAuley Cup best overall in kindergarten - Ellie and Peter Mayo
Magee Cup runner up in the kindergarten - Jack Gillespie
McKervill Cup best overall seniors - Euan Hamill
Stuart Dixon Memorial Cup runner up seniors - Abbie and Sam McDowell
Robert Adair Cup best overall in Fusion - Carragh Hamill
Youth Shield best overall youth - Simon Bennett and Callum Hamill
Lauren Minford Memorial Cup contribution to youth and music - Emma Weir
Family Service Attendance - Joshua Livingstone

Thanks to all the leaders who helped during Children's Week and the Fun Night with special thanks to Stephanie Johnston for helping with art work and Helen Weir also for art work and photos, for paper and Facebook. To everyone who welcomed and made tea during the year and to all the Sunday School teachers and youth leaders of all organisations, we greatly appreciate your time and commitment. To celebrate we had an evening at the Thatch - 34 leaders attended from both St Patrick's and St Columba's. A great time was had by all.

On Sunday 3rd July young people from the parish went to Glenarm to join others from the Diocese at Summer Madness Christian Festival. We all had a great time.

During the summer months children's church will be available for the children during the 11.30 am service.

Summer Scheme for primary school children Monday 15th - Friday 19th August from 3 - 6 pm, £1.50 per child per day. Contact Lucy to book a place 077 5995 0497. Also anyone able to help contact Lucy.

Youth Club starts again on Saturday 3rd September 7 - 8 pm for juniors primary school age and 8 - 10 pm for seniors secondary school age. Anyone wanting to become a member of senior youth club must bring their parents on the first night to register.

Sunday School will start on Sunday 4th September. We would love to see anyone from 3 years of age. There will be a meeting for Sunday school teachers on Monday 22nd August at 7.30 pm.

Anyone willing to help with any organisation, Sunday School or Youth Club or anyone wanting to complete Duke of Edinburgh or any volunteer work please speak to Lucy or Alan.

The Curate's Letter

'Chimps are Us'

I was reading a good newspaper article (in the bath) recently which reported that ethologists (that's scientists who study animal behaviour to you and me) are puzzled by the behaviour of chimpanzees when faced by waterfalls. Not something that you have ever considered, perhaps, unless you are an ethologist, and maybe not even then.

It has been noticed that chimpanzees who come upon spectacular waterfalls stop what they are doing and perform a display of rhythmical dancing, swaying, stamping and throwing rocks for up to 15 minutes. What is going on here? Jane Goodall, an ethologist, argues that this is a kind of early primitive religious ritual, and that primates have religious feelings when faced by something awesome and magnificent. Interesting. Other ethologists Donovan Schaefer and Stewart Guthrie argue that chimpanzees see the world as alive - when they come before a magnificent waterfall they are awed, and frightened, because they see the waterfall as a living, even dangerous thing that has to be treated very carefully.

Don't be feeling that you are too different to a chimp! Theologian Rudolph Otto wrote a famous and groundbreaking book in the 1920's, which has never been out of print, called The Idea of the Holy. Otto says that the most basic human response to the sheer awesomeness of the living God has to be fear - fear of something living and so powerful that it might even be dangerous, and a tremendous sense of awe. That friends is quite the right attitude to take. Ultimately, all other things we may feel about God (gratitude for all that he gives us, and does for us) are secondary to this feeling. The author of the Letter to the Hebrews (10.31) understands this well, he (or she) says, "It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God."

Animals too, I think, have religious feelings, these smart chimps recognise something awesome when they see it, just like we do, and nothing is more awesome than God. God is greater than any waterfall found in nature, because God is bigger even than nature itself. So be grateful to God for all his acts of loving kindness, but most of all be deeply aware of your own smallness compared to his awesome size and power.

Dorothy Lucy Howe

Dorothy was born on Ballymena Show Day, 17th June 1925. Her parents were Dora and Fred Howe who owned a confectionery wholesale business in Ballymena. Dorothy went to Trinity College Dublin to study English language and literature. Later she went on to be a teacher in England and Headmistress at Charters Towers International Girls' School in Bexhill, East Sussex. Dorothy came back home to Ballymena in 2008. Then due to ill health she moved to Prospect Nursing Home in 2014. The staff there enjoyed her humour and dry wit.

Annie Reid

Annie was probably born in Cullybackey, it is not known for sure. She was from a large farming family, and devoted most of her life to looking after her family and housekeeping for her brothers who were unmarried farmers. Annie continued to do this until her last brother died only a few years ago. Annie was a private lady who loved her family and had a strong streak of determination. She was unable to live independently after a severe stroke a few years ago and was well looked after in Prospect Nursing Home. We offer our sympathy to all of the Reid family.

Ruth Mairs

A good gathering of family and friends was present at James Henry's Funeral Parlour for the thanksgiving service for the life of Ruth Mairs on Tuesday 14th June. Ruth, a real Ballymena woman, having spent her whole life close to Edward Street, went to local schools and worked hard in several local businesses to provide a home for her two boys Jim and John. She retired from the Braidwater Spinning Mill and sadly her health began to steadily decline through the breathing disorder COPD. She met and married Donald, a former merchant seaman, who was incredibly dedicated to her and over the years became Ruth's chief carer. Her family and friends remember Ruth as a generous, forthright character, very much at the heart of the entire family. Ruth was laid to rest in Ballymena Cemetery - the rector conducted the service.

Adeline Leckey O'Loan

Adeline was born in 1933 in Broughshane. She attended Ballymena Academy where she was head girl and captain of the 1st hockey team. She also took a leading role in school plays. Adeline was a keen reader and worked in a Ballymena bookshop for many years where customers valued her knowledge of books. She was a member of the Slemish Players for many years. She greatly enjoyed taking part in plays and attending drama festivals. Adeline had an intelligent enquiring mind and a great love for Ireland, its scenery and culture. Just before she died she recited the W. B. Yeats poem from 'The Lake of Innisfree' to one of the care assistants who was going to Sligo (Yeats Country) for a weekend break. Our thoughts and prayers are with her daughters Geraldine, Mandy and Alice.

Elizabeth (Laura) Allen

Laura was born on 30th July 1922 and was one of nine children. She had six sisters and two brothers. Laura attended Tullymore Primary School. Her teacher had so many children in her class called Elizabeth that she decided to call her 'Laura' instead. Laura, as she became known, did not really like school and was very pleased to leave and start working at the Raceview Mill. She married her husband Jimmy and together they were blessed with four daughters - Davida, Vera, Betty and Mary. Laura was very family orientated and only began working when Mary, her youngest child, started school. She worked as a cleaner for Dr Giff, Dr Hannah and Dr Neilly and only finished working when she was 70 years of age. Laura enjoyed walking and most days she walked from Ballymarlow to the Galgorm Road. We extend our sympathy to the family circle.

Darren Rodgers

St Patrick's was filled to capacity on Saturday 25th June as the rector, assisted by the curates conducted the Thanksgiving Service for Darren's short life. As you will already be aware from other articles in this magazine Darren tragically lost his life in Nice, France while on a trip to support his beloved Northern Ireland Football Team. His mum and dad, Paul and Jackie and the rest of the family circle are and will be very much in our prayers. Darren attended Ballykeel nursery and primary schools, then Cambridge House. After school Darren trained as an electrician and was apprenticed to Alex Bonar and Sons latterly working for Derek Burnside. He was a keen footballer playing locally for Braid United FC, a keen member and helper in our CLB company, many of his peers were with us on that difficult day and their tears spoke louder than words about the affection in which Dar Dar was held. The rector took as the theme for his address some of the lyrics from that famous football song 'You'll never walk alone' linking these with God's glorious promises in John chapter 14 and it was so fitting that our final hymn beautifully built on this theme 'Abide with me'. The family would like me to thank everyone for the messages of support they have received over the last number of days.
